

RAINFOR Facebook Policy

Content

The RAINFOR account is managed by the RAINFOR communications team on behalf of colleagues across our global network.

If you Like our page, you can expect timely, informative and newsworthy posts as opposed to a specific number of posts per day. RAINFOR posts will relate to:

- Alerts about new content on our websites: ForestPlots.net and RAINFOR
- Alerts about RAINFOR related news
- Alerts about new publications
- Alerts about new research positions in the UK/overseas
- Information about events, campaigns and meetings
- Invitations to provide feedback on specific issues

Language

- The default language for RAINFOR posts is English. However when the subject matter is related to medium issues in Spanish or Portuguese, we will endeavour to ensure the posts and all associated responses/communications are posted in Spanish or Portuguese.

Updates and Monitoring of Account

- We will update and monitor our Facebook account during office hours, Monday to Friday. Facebook may occasionally be unavailable and we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to Facebook downtime.

Replies and Direct Messages

- We welcome comment and feedback from all our colleagues and will try our best to reply individually to all the messages we receive via Facebook.
- We cannot engage on matters about issues unrelated to RAINFOR.

If you wish to enter into formal correspondence with us, please contact the RAINFOR Communications Team, School of Geography, University of Leeds, Leeds, LS2 9JT, UK

ForestPlots Twitter Policy

Content

The ForestPlots Twitter account is managed by the ForestPlots communications team on behalf of colleagues across our global network.

If you follow us, you can expect timely, informative and newsworthy tweets as opposed to a specific number per day. ForestPlots tweets will relate to:

- Alerts about new content on our websites: ForestPlots.net, RAINFOR, AfriTron, TFORCES, AMAZONICA
- Alerts about ForestPlots related news
- Alerts about new publications
- Alerts about other tropical forest related research
- Alerts about new research positions in the UK/overseas
- Information about events, campaigns and meetings

Language

The default language for ForestPlots tweets is English. However when the subject matter is related to medium issues in Spanish or Portuguese, we will endeavour to ensure the Tweets and all associated responses/communications are posted in Spanish or Portuguese.

Following

If you follow us on Twitter we will not automatically follow you back. If ForestPlots does follow you back, this does not imply endorsement of any kind.

We will update and monitor our Twitter account during office hours, Monday to Friday. Twitter may occasionally be unavailable and we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to Twitter downtime.

Replies and Direct Messages

- We welcome comment and feedback from all our colleagues and will try our best to reply individually to all the messages we receive via Twitter.
- We cannot engage on matters about issues unrelated to ForestPlots.

If you wish to enter into formal correspondence with us, please contact the ForestPlots Communications Team, School of Geography, University of Leeds, Leeds, LS2 9JT, UK